

MESC2 – 2009 – This is Change!

The 2nd Middle East Student Conference is on the move!

Tel Aviv, August 2nd-6th, 2009

Who Are We?

We are a group of students and young professionals from Tel Aviv University seek to obtain responsibility over our regional future. Knowledge is power, thus, understanding this conflict in a balanced manner will effect critically on future solution.

What Are MESC2's Goals?

- Acquiring a thorough knowledge of the conflict.
- Understanding both sides of the conflict.
- Seeking for original solutions to the conflicts.
- Becoming ambassadors of good will, worldwide, offering the knowledge to those who seek knowledge on the conflict.

What Can We Offer You?

- Academic lectures on region's history, by world-famous specialist. MESC2 is being academically-sponsored by Tel Aviv University.
- Professionals' lectures on their views of the conflict, including; members of the Palestinian Government, Knesset Members and private individuals engaged in conflict management.
- Negotiating Simulations which will provide the participants the complexity aspect of the conflict.
- Field tours, presenting an unbiased, first-handed witnessing of the reality on the ground for a better understanding the core issues of the conflict.

What Can You Offer Us?

- A student or Young Professional, between the ages of 20-28 (at the day of the conference), with a basic knowledge on international affairs and world politics.
- High English proficiency, both in speech and writing.
- A team-worker, not intimidated by challenges, creative thinking is a must.
- Completing our application form on MESC2's website.

MESC2 is a real, and experienced opportunity for future young leaders in becoming better acquainted with the conflict, and later on. Unawareness to history and the complexity of this conflict is destructive. We, at MESC2 began already in changing the reality, Join us!

For applications details, visit our website @ www.mesc-tlv.com

Applications' Dead line:

June 15th, 2009 (Answers by July 7th, 2009)